COMMISSIONER DAVID BAKER

Through astute business practices, a fan-first philosophy and strategic alliances, David Baker has successfully grown the Arena Football League from a small-market niche sport into a major-market emerging major league that is capable of achieving its goals of making all teams profitable and of becoming the world's only truly global league. During his decade-long tenure, Baker has grown the AFL by identifying quality ownership, expansion, television, and corporate partnerships as key league initiatives. The results of those initiatives speak for themselves.

Baker successfully lobbied the NFL to change its bylaws and permit its owners to own and operate Arena Football teams in their home markets. On June 3, 1998, New Orleans Saints owner Tom Benson became the first NFL owner to acquire AFL team rights. Currently, four AFL teams are operated by NFL owners (Tom Benson, Arthur Blank, Pat Bowlen, and Jerry Jones) and two other owners (Denise DeBartolo-York and Dan Snyder) control the rights to future teams in their markets. Baker has also attracted numerous high-profile personalities and businessmen to the AFL, such as Jon Bon Jovi, Mike Ditka, John Elway, Ron Jaworski, Stan Kroenke, Neil Smith and Casey Wasserman.

Baker recognized early in his tenure that growth required teams in large markets. Some teams relocated, such as Des Moines to New York, while expansion teams were placed in Chicago, Los Angeles and Philadelphia. All in all, Baker has sold 17 AFL expansion teams and presided over the sale of eight other teams. In 1996, an AFL expansion team could be purchased for $400,000. Today, the cost is $20 million. In 2000, Baker presided over the creation of arenafootball2, the AFL's developmental league. During its eight-year history, af2 has sold 57 expansion teams. Combine the AFL and af2 figures and Baker has presided over the sale of 74 expansion teams. In 2003, the AFL began an industry-changing partnership with NBC Sports that lasted for four seasons. Broadcasts received critical acclaim and branded the AFL as a credible, mainstream sport. In 2007, the AFL partnered with ESPN on an equally innovative agreement. The second season of the partnership with the "Worldwide Leader in Sports" begins in 2008.

The effect the exposure from television has had on the AFL is indisputable. Since 2002, the year before the AFL's NBC agreement, total revenue is up 91 percent, while total expenses are up only 10 percent, and the average team equity appreciation has increased 100 percent. Average attendance is up 25 percent.

Corporate partnerships have been a strength during Baker's tenure. EA Sports has produced two Arena Football video games, which both rank as the top two selling consumer products in league history. In 2007, AFL revenue from corporate partnerships was up 60 percent, thriving from new relationships with Russell Athletic, Discover Card and Mitsubishi Motors. Baker has also provided labor stability via the AFL's long-term Collective Bargaining Agreement with its Players Association, which runs through 2015, making it the longest and most far reaching in sports. Up next for Baker are two achievable goals: – league-wide team profitability and international growth. Because of recent team operating successes, Baker is establishing a Team Services Department to focus on improving team finances even more. He believes that within five years, the Arena Football can field the league with the second-most number of profitable teams. As for international, Baker is conducting discussions with numerous high-profile groups that could result in the AFL expanding into Canada, Europe, Mexico and the Pacific Rim.

Baker was named the AFL's fourth Commissioner on November 7, 1996, following one season as chairman of the AFL's Board of Directors. His first order of business was to draft the League's first-ever Mission Statement as well as the Fans' Bill of Rights, each unprecedented in professional sports.

Baker grew up in Irvine, California, and went on to star at power forward for UC-Irvine. Following college and two seasons playing pro basketball in Europe, Baker attended Pepperdine School of Law where he graduated with honors and served as Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review. Baker, 54, is a former Mayor of Irvine, California and the proud father of two sons, Benjamin, who is a Broadcasting Department coordinator for the Arena Football League, and Sam, who is a two-time All-America left tackle at Southern California.

PRESIDENT JERRY KURZ

Certainly no stranger to the game of Arena Football, Kurz is entering his fourth season as af2 President. As one of the founding members of Gridiron Enterprises Inc., the charter member of the Arena Football League, Kurz is only exceeded in AFL tenure by Jim Foster, the creator of Arena Football. As one of the game's founding fathers, Kurz has had an instrumental role in the growth of Arena Football League over the past 22 years. Now directly in charge of af2, Kurz continues to use that same vision and passion to cultivate af2 into the premier developmental football league in the country.

In his short time as chief of af2, Kurz has solidified the future growth potential of the league by securing a core of quality operators and adding several new teams that begin play in 2008. Thanks to Kurz's efforts, this year the league welcomes three new members: the Austin Wranglers, Daytona Beach ThunderBirds and Lexington Horsemen. He also helped facilitate the rebirth of two of the league's most noted franchises, the Iowa Barnstormers and Peoria Pirates, which will begin play in 2008 as well.

Kurz also serves as the AFL's Vice President of International Development, responsible for the League's international exposure, growth and expansion. He directly supervises the international players in the AFL and af2 and administers the H3 Visa program established in 2002 to develop foreign-born players. He has planned and executed all international games of the Arena Football League and continues to plan and lead the AFL's international expansion efforts. In an effort to increase the international talent in the league, Kurz adopted a rule in af2 prior to the 2005 season that allows teams to dress an extra player if that player is of international origin.

Kurz is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma where he was a member of the 1967 Big Eight Championship team and 1968 Orange Bowl Championship team. He has been a player, a coach, a general manager and an owner in the football community. As a team owner, he has served on the Executive, the Legal, the Rules and Competition and the Negotiating Committees as well as serving on the Management Council. He is also a member of three football Hall of Fames including being a member of the first class of the Arena Football Hall of Fame. He and his wife Kathryn have one son, Matthew, a college football player at Indiana University, and reside in Glenview, Illinois.

RULES OF THE GAME

FIELD

- An indoor padded surface 85 feet wide and 50 yards long with eight-yard end zones.
- Goal posts are nine feet wide with a crossbar height of 15 feet (NFL goal posts are 18-1/2 feet wide with the crossbar at 10 feet).
- The goal-side rebound nets are 30 feet wide by 32 feet high. The bottoms of the nets are eight feet above the ground.
- Sideline barriers are 48 inches high and made of high-density foam rubber.

EQUIPMENT

- The official football is the same size and weight as the National Football League ball. Each ball is manufactured by Spalding, a division of Russell Corporation.

PLAYERS AND FORMATIONS

- Eight players on the field; 20-man active roster; four-man inactive roster.
- Players may play both offense and defense.
- Substitution: Coaches are permitted to substitute players at will.
- Four (4) offensive players must line up on the line of scrimmage.

- Three (3) defensive players must be down linemen (in a three- or four-point stance). One linebacker may blitz on either side of the center. Alignment is two-or-more yards off the line of scrimmage. No stunting or twisting.
- Offensive motion: One receiver may go in forward motion before the snap.

TIMING
- Four 15-minute quarters with a 15-minute halftime.
- The clock stops for out-of-bounds plays or incomplete passes only in the last minute of each half and when the referee deems it necessary for penalties, injuries or timeouts.
- Each team is allowed three (3) timeouts per half.

MOVEMENT OF THE BALL AND SCORING
- Four (4) downs are allowed to advance the ball 10 yards for a first down, or to score.
- Six (6) points for a touchdown.
- One (1) point for a conversion by place kick after a touchdown, two (2) points for a conversion by drop kick and two (2) points for a successful run or pass after a touchdown.
- Three (3) points for a field goal by placement or four (4) points for a field goal by drop kick.
- Two (2) points for a safety.

KICKING
- Kickoffs are from the goal line. Kickers may use a one-inch tee.
- Punting is illegal. On fourth down, a team may go for a first down, touchdown or field goal.
- The receiving team may field any kickoff or missed field goal that rebounds off the net.
- Any untouched kickoff, which is out of bounds, will be placed at the 20-yard line or the place where it went out-of-bounds, whichever is more advantageous to the receiving team.

PASSING
- Receivers must have one foot inbounds for a catch. A forward pass that rebounds off the rebound net or sideline barrier is a live ball and is in play until it touches the playing surface.

OVERTIME RULES
- Overtime periods are 15 minutes for both the regular season and the playoffs.
- Each team gets one possession to score. If, after each team has had one possession, one team is ahead, that team wins. If the teams are tied after each has had a possession, the next team to score wins.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

BALL IN THE STANDS– When a ball is thrown or bounces into the seats surrounding the playing field, the "lucky" fan that catches the ball keeps it.

DROP KICK– A drop-kicked FG is worth 4 points. A drop-kicked extra point is worth 2 points. Former Milwaukee Mustangs kicker Kenny Stucker is the last man to have connected on a two-point dropkick (1997).

FANS– More than 20 million fans have been to an AFL game in the League's 20 Season History. Last year, in 2006, the AFL drew more than 1 million fans for the 11th consecutive season.

IRONMAN– Signifies participants playing both offense and defense.

"MAC" AND "JACK" LINEBACKERS – "Mac" may rush the QB straight on without stunting, twisting or drop-back coverage. "Jack" must stay within an imaginary box behind the line of scrimmage. Either LB may cover the fullback or tight end, but double-teaming is illegal.

OFFENSIVE MOTION– Unlike stadium-played football, one offensive back may go into forward motion prior to the snap of the ball.

OVERTIME– Arena Football has a unique overtime rule. If a contest is tied after regulation, teams will play a 15-minute overtime. Each team will have one opportunity to score. If, after each team has had one chance to score, the game is tied, the first team to score is crowned the winner.

REBOUND NETS– Goal-side rebound nets extend outward from each upright. The nets are 30-feet wide, 32-feet high and extend to 40 feet above the playing surface. The bottom bars of the frames are positioned eight feet above the surface. The "scoring area" is nine-feet wide and 15-feet high. Nets are stretched taut so that a missed kick attempt will rebound off the net and back into the field of play. Once the ball caroms off the net, it's live.

SIDELINE BARRIERS– Similar to the sideboards that surround a hockey rink, the sideline barrier encircles the playing surface. The barrier is made of a high-density foam pad, measuring four inches thick.

STUNTING OR TWISTING– When a defensive lineman is rushing the passer, there's no "stunting" or "twisting". In other words, linemen are required to power past offensive linemen.

TIGHT END– One offensive lineman must declare himself a tight end prior to the snap by simply raising his arm and "declaring" himself a tight end. The Mac (rush-eligible) linebacker must line-up on the opposite side of the center from the tight end.

TWO-WAY PLAYERS – One of the most "throwback" features of the Arena Football League is the fact that the game features eight-on-eight football, where at times, some players will play both offense and defense.

2008 af2 Playoff Qualification

PLAYOFF QUALIFICATION

Sixteen teams qualify for the playoffs, eight from each conference (American and National). The eight qualifying teams in each conference consist of the three division champions and five Wild Cards, determined by best overall record. Seeding in each conference is based on overall record, with the top three seeds in each conference reserved for the division champions, regardless of record. In the First Round (August 1-3), the first three seeds in each conference are the three division winners. The next five teams are seeded by next best five overall records. Teams ranked 1-4 earn home playoff games with 1 hosting 8, 2 hosting 7, 3 hosting 6 and 4 hosting 5. In the Second Round (August 8-10), the winner of the 1-8 game plays the winner of the 4-5 game. The winner of the 2-7 game plays the winner of the 3-6 game. The home team is decided by the team with the higher seed. The winners of the Second Round will meet for the Conference Championships on the weekend of August 15-17. The team with the better overall record hosts the Conference Championship game. The winners of the Conference Championships face off in the 2008 ArenaCup on the weekend of August 22-24 at a site to be determined.

Game 9—June 9, 2007 @ South Georgia Wildcats

Wilkes-Barre/Scranton 70, SOUTH GEORGIA 62

June 9, 2007, Albany, Georgia- The No.1 and No.2-ranked teams took the field at the Albany Civic Center and slugged it out in a real heavyweight contest, but when the dust settled, the WB/Scranton Pioneers held on to win their 9th straight and defeat the South Georgia Wildcats by a final score of 70-62 in front of 5,813 at Cooper Tire Field. The loss dropped the Wildcats to 7-3 on the season.

This was a different South Georgia team than a week ago when they struggled against 1-6 Corpus Christi. The offense was sharp throughout the evening, in spite of three turnovers, two interceptions given up by QB D. Bryant (21-35-2, 357 yards, 9 TDs) and a questionable fumble call after Bryant hit Chavis McCollister for a 17 yard completion with just over 11 minutes left in the game. McCollister turned the ball over after the tackle and WB Scranton took over, taking just two plays to put the ball in the end zone and extend their lead to 9. Until that point, both teams had gone back and forth like two fighters scoring at will.

Pioneer quarterback Ryan Vena (27-40-1, 321 yards, 8 TDs) proved why he is one of the league leaders, throwing scoring strikes to Buchie Ibeh (12-135 yds, 3 TDs), Tyreak Saviour (5-63 yds, 3 TDs), Larry Kendrick (7-84 yards, 1 TD), and DeOnte Taylor (3-39 yds, 1 TD). Vena rushed for one score, as did Terrence Glover, who took it in from 15 yards out with 2:34 left in the third period.

South Georgia's Chavis McCollister caught 16 passes for 308 yards and 9 touchdowns, garnering him Player of the Game honors. James Robinson caught a TD pass of 23 yards in the first period. Several dropped passes were critical for the Wildcats, but they stayed focused and continued to come after the Pioneers, keeping the game close until the fourth period when the wheels fell off for the 'Cats. Ryan threw a TD pass to Taylor with 9:27 left in the game, and on the next possession, Bryant threw an interception to Larry Kendrick which turned into a Pioneer score. South Georgia would come back late in the game with an interception by Daryon Brutley and a final touchdown to Chavis McCollister, but the onside kick was recovered by the Pioneers, who ran the clock out winning the game.

South Georgia will be on the road next week at Tennessee Valley in a Division matchup, while Wilkes-Barre/Scranton will return home to host Alabama.

The Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers defeated the Alabama Steeldogs 77-62 in front of a deafening crowd of 6,030 fans, the largest attendance this season at the Wachovia Arena. The game featured two high powered offenses and eleven lead changes, before the Pioneers defense took control in the fourth quarter.

Pioneers QB Ryan Vena set a Pioneers single game touchdown record by throwing for 10 touchdowns and running for another score. The Steeldogs were led by QB Mitch Tanney who threw for 261 yards and six touchdowns. Steeldogs WR Herman Bell broke an af2 record for most kickoff return yards in a single game by accumulating 286 yards on the night. He surpasses the former record set by Shadrick McAfee (2003) by 18 yards.

Pioneers WR/DB Larry Kendrick had an impressive game catching 12 passes for 152 yards and five touchdowns while teammate WR Buchie Ibeh caught 10 passes for 118 yards and three scores. Steeldogs WR Bradly Chavez had a notable night as well by catching seven passes for 118 yards and two touchdowns.

The first half was full of many big plays and momentum changes, the biggest made by Pioneers K David Davis who forced and recovered a fumble on a Steeldogs kickoff return; which resulted in Vena's rushing touchdown.

After trailing 55–50 at the end of the third quarter Pioneers DB and the ADT Defensive Player of the Game, Chris Royal, intercepted a pass deep in Pioneers territory which led to a Pioneers score. Royal sealed the game for the Pioneers on the next Steeldogs possession by recovering a fumble. The Pioneers capitalized on the recovery by scoring on the next drive. The Pioneers improve their record to a league best 10-0 as the Steeldogs drop to 5-6 on the season.

Game 13—July 7, 2007 @ Fort Wayne Fusion

Wilkes-Barre/Scranton 48, FORT WAYNE 47

The Fort Wayne Fusion played 4 quarters of solid football Saturday night, but it wasn't enough to top the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers, as the Fusion fell 48-47 in front of a spirited crowd of 3,951 fans at Ford Fusion Field at Memorial Coliseum on Saturday night.

A see-saw battle came down to the game's waning moments, as the Fusion pulled to within one point with 13 seconds left and opted to attempt a two-point conversion to go for the win instead of kick a PAT and go into overtime. The Pioneers defense held, and kept their perfect season intact for one more week. The Pioneers improved to 13-0, while the Fusion fell to 5-9 and closed out the home schedule at 3-5.

Fusion QB Blayne Baggett played well, going 20-of-35 passing with 6 TDs and 2 INTs. WR Cesare Manning led Fusion receivers with 10 receptions for 151 yards and 4 TDs. FB/LB Terrel White bulldozed his way to 58 yards on 7 rushes, including 1 TD.

The Fusion hits the road for their final two games of the 2007 season, first to Huntsville Alabama for a rematch with the Tennessee Valley Vipers on Saturday, July 14th. The Fusion defeated the Vipers 56-33 in Fort Wayne on May 26th. After a bye week, the Fusion will then head to Moline, Illinois for another rematch, this time against the Midwest Division-leading Quad City Steamwheelers, who handed the Fusion a 64-47 home loss on June 8th.

Game 14—July 13, 2007 @ Manchester Wolves

Wilkes-Barre/Scranton 46, MANCHESTER 49

It was almost a "Nightmare on Elm Street" as it was a scary start for the Manchester Wolves in their come from behind 49-46 upset over the previously undefeated Wilkes-Barre Scranton Pioneers in front of 6,000 fans on Friday the 13th on Brady Sullivan Field at the Verizon Wireless Arena in Manchester, N.H.

The Wolves (8-6), now riding a season-high three-game win streak, found themselves down 21-0 to start the game before outscoring the Pioneers 49-25 in the final three quarters. Manchester's defense rose to the occasion as they stopped the #2 ranked offense in the league six times, the biggest coming as time expired as OL/DL Maurice Fountain collected his 11.5 sack of the season – tying the Wolves single season record set by Charlie Cook in 2003 at Mohegan.

Manchester quarterback Mark Radlinski (279 yards, seven touchdowns) improved to 5-3 as the Wolves starter with the win. Wolves WR Patrick Rouzard collected the Schutt Offensive Player of the Game with his three touchdowns to go along with his seven catches and 99 yards receiving. WR/DB David Bailey played a tremendous game on both sides of the field with his three catches for 50 yards and one touchdown offensively to go along with his four tackles and one pass defended, earning him the US Army Ironman Award. The ADT Defensive Player of the Game went to DB Travis Pugh who forced two big fumbles along with his team-leading seven tackles and one pass defended on the evening.

Wilkes-Barre (13-1) put in a hard-fought effort all the way down to the wire led by their veteran signal caller Ryan Vena (335 yards, five touchdowns), who earned his first loss as a Pioneer. The Cutters Catch of Game went to WR Larry Kendrick who led the way offensively for the Pioneers with his nine-catch, 106 yards and one touchdown performance. Defensively for the Pioneers DB Chris Royal collected a game-high 11.0 tackles along with one interception and two passes defended.

Wolves' kicker Connor McCormick went a perfect 7-for-7 in his PAT tries on the night to extend his streak to 18-for-18 at home on Brady Sullivan Field at the Verizon Wireless Arena.

The Wolves will look to extend their winning ways when they travel to New York to take on their East Division rival Albany Conquest (5-8) in Albany, NY next Saturday July 21 at 7:00 p.m.

The Pioneers' defense was led by U.S. Army Ironman of the Game, LB Doug Harding, and DB Chris Royal who had three interceptions during the night; adding to his previous season total of 11 making him the ADT Defensive Player of the Game. The Battle Wings were led by Schutt Offensive Player of the Game Jamaal Perry who caught 10 passes for 182 yards and three touchdowns. Perry also added 108 return yards giving him a total of 290 all purpose yards. Pioneers receivers Buchie Ibeh and Tyreak Saviour combined for 11 catches, 167 yards, and three touchdowns

The Pioneers next drive resulted in the only score of the fourth quarter.

With the win the Pioneers improve their record to a league best 14–1 while the Battle Wings fall to 10 -5. The Pioneers will finish out the 2007 regular season next week as they visit their division opponents the Albany Conquest.

Game 16—July 27, 2007 @ Albany Conquest

Wilkes-Barre/Scranton 42, ALBANY 56

Albany, NY – Albany Conquest wide receiver Bakari Brown's touchdown with 38.7 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter proved to be the difference in a 56-42 victory over the league-leading Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers at U.S. Army Field at the Times Union Center on Friday night.

The game began ominously for the Conquest when former Albany WR/DB DeOnte Taylor recovered a fumble off the opening kick-off to give the visitors an early 7-0 lead. The Conquest answered when former R.P.I. Engineer Dan Cole ran in his first af2 touchdown but a missed extra point kept Albany behind at 7-6.

The Conquest then took its first lead of the night when US Army Ironman of the Game Chris Curd hauled in a nine-yard TD reception. Pioneers QB Ryan Vena answered with a rushing TD early in the second quarter but it would be all Conquest into the lockerroom. WR Antwun Williams and Curd added touchdown receptions before the half staking the hosts to a 27-14 edge after the first 30 minutes.

Cole completed 16 of 34 passes for 160 yards with four touchdowns in his first af2 start. He came out towards the end of the first half and returned briefly in the second half but a sore shoulder sent him to the showers for the night. "Danny tried to gut it out but at that point it didn't make sense so we brought Ryan (Hart) back in."

The end result still put a smile on the Troy native's face. "We did everything we needed to do to win," said Cole. "It is sweet to beat them last and it is definitely a nice note to finish the season on, and it felt great to get some real playing time under my belt."

Wilkes-Barre made a game of it by scoring consecutive touchdowns from Marcus Furman during the third quarter, which made the score 35-28 Albany entering the final 15 minutes. The Pioneers sat Vena for most of the game and back-up Anthony Doria went 12 for 21 with 163 yards and two touchdowns in relief.

Cole added his second rushing touchdown of the night in the fourth quarter before leaving for the night and staking the home team to a 42-28 advantage. The Pioneers (14-2) once again connected for back-to-back scores which tied the game at 42-42.

That set up Brown's second TD reception of the night and then the Conquest sealed the deal when team captain Jose Harris recovered a fumble in the Pioneers endzone with just over 30 seconds remaining.

Pioneers WR Buchie Ibeh had eight catches and three touchdowns on the night, while Marcus Furman added 151 all purpose yards with two receiving touchdowns. The Fever defense was led by ADT Defensive Player of the Game, and former Pioneer, Jamie Hattley, who had two interceptions.

The lead changed many times up until late in the fourth quarter when QB Ryan Vena connected on a 17 yard strike to Ibeh on 4th down giving the Pioneers a 49-48 lead. On the following possession the Fever answered when Drafts completed a 33 yard touchdown pass to WR/LB Robert Garth, however the point after attempt failed, making the score 54-49. The Pioneers took the lead back with one minute remaining when Vena yet again completed a touchdown to Ibeh followed by a successful two point conversion. With seven seconds remaining, the Fever had one last chance to tie the contest when kicker Ryan Cesca attempted a 55 yard field goal, which sailed wide left to closeout the game.

The Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers tamed the Central Valley Coyotes 70-53 in front of a roaring crowd of 4,844 fans at the Wachovia Arena. Pioneers QB Ryan Vena led the offense by throwing for nine touchdowns, running in for another score and throwing for 404 yards. Central Valley was led by QB Brian Luke who threw four touchdowns, ran the ball in for a touchdown and threw for a total of 252 yards.

Central Valley's DB/KR Aleric Clark had an exceptional night returning kickoffs for the Coyotes by returning eight kicks for 215 yards. Coyotes WR Jason Barnes had two touchdowns on six catches and a total of 130 yards on the night. Pioneers WR/DB Larry Kendrick was named U.S. Army Ironman of the Game for his success on both sides of the ball. Offensively, Kendrick had nine catches for a total of 141 yards and four touchdowns.

The game started on an exciting note when the opening kick appeared to be returned for a touchdown, only to be stripped from Central Valley's hands and sent spiraling through the end zone and into the seats. This resulted in the Pioneers beginning their first drive on their own five yard line; which led to a 29 yard touchdown catch by Pioneers WR Marcus Furman.

The rest of the game was a back and forth battle between the Coyotes and Pioneers. The Pioneers defense took control of the game in the fourth quarter thanks to DB Chris Royal intercepting the ball on the Pioneers two yard line. The victory was sealed on the following drive when Vena connected with Kendrick in the end zone.

The Blizzard were led by Schutt Offensive Player of the Game WR/DB Scott Burnoski who caught 10 receptions for three touchdowns and 174 yards.

The conference championship started with the Pioneers scoring on their second play when Vena connected with WR Marcus Furman for a 29 yard touchdown. The Blizzard attempted a field goal on the next drive but missed and resulted in a David Davis field goal on the Pioneers next possession. The Blizzard scored their first touchdown of the game on a 29 yard pass from Blizzard QB Zeke Dixon to Burnoski to finish out the first quarter.

The Pioneers defense stepped up in the second quarter as they held the Blizzard to their one yard line. Pioneers WR/DB and U.S. Army Ironman of the Game Larry Kendrick intercepted Dixon's pass on the five yard line and ran in for a touchdown to give the Pioneers a 19 point lead. The first half came to an end when Pioneers C Beau Elliott prevented a Blizzard touchdown off of a missed field goal attempt by Davis as time expired.

The Blizzard came out strong in the second half by outscoring the Pioneers 27-14, but the Pioneers players made big plays to seal the game for the home team. The ADT Defensive Player of the Game, Pioneers DB TuTu Ferguson, intercepted a Blizzard pass with 8:16 left in the fourth quarter which resulted in a Pioneers score on the next drive. 2007 Arena Cup Summary

Tulsa 73, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton 66

For a man who weighs only 165 pounds and stands just 5'8", Tulsa Talons WR JEFF HUGHLEY sure did carry a heavy load as he helped his team to the second ArenaCup championship in franchise history, 73-66, over the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers on Saturday, August 25 at the CenturyTel Center in Bossier City, La.

Hughley accounted for four Tulsa touchdowns, including two kickoff returns and was named the U.S. Army Strong Ironman of the Game. He caught nine passes for 143 yards and returned seven kickoffs for 203 yards. The 203 kickoff return yards and 346 all-purpose yards are both new ArenaCup records.

Another record set on Saturday night was that the two competing teams combined for 139 points, surpassing the old record of 127 total points set in the 2000 ArenaCup by Quad City (68) and Tennessee Valley (59).

The game went back and forth all night long. With 6:33 left to play in the fourth quarter, Pioneers' QB RYAN VENA hit Tyreak Saviour for the third time on the night to tie the game, 59-59. It was at that moment that Hughley put his exclamation point on ArenaCup8. Hughley caught the ensuing kickoff off the net and scampered 55 yards for his second kickoff return for a touchdown on the night, giving Tulsa a 66-59 lead.

The Talons defense made big plays all night long, but none was bigger than the fourth-down stop they made with 3:17 left to play in the game. Vena's pass attempt to WR BUCHIE IBEH fell incomplete and Tulsa had the ball deep in Pioneers' territory.

No defensive player for Tulsa had a bigger game than DB DELENELL REID. Reid was named the game's ADT Defensive Player of the Game for his outstanding effort. He collected four tackles, three pass breakups, one forced fumble and a 52-yard fumble return for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter to give his team the 59-52 lead.

Tulsa QB JUSTIN ALLGOOD capitalized and ran in his second rushing touchdown of the night, giving the Talons a 73-59 lead with one minute to play.

The Pioneers wouldn't give up without a fight. The reigning U.S. Army Ironman of the Week, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton WR/DB LARRY KENDRICK took K LUKE PHILLIPS' kick into the end zone, making the score 73-66, Tulsa, with 52.2 seconds to play.

Tulsa recovered the onside kick attempt, but then WR JERMAINE LANDRUM fumbled and the Pioneers' recovered with 44 seconds left. The Talons defense stood tall once again and the Pioneers last attempt with 3.8 seconds left fell incomplete, crowning Tulsa the champions of the af2.

Wilkes-Barre/Scranton's Vena did his absolute best to will the Pioneers to a victory. The veteran signal caller, playing in his first title game appearance in four years in the af2, set a new ArenaCup record by throwing seven touchdown passes in the championship game. Vena finished the night 24-of-46 for 326 yards, seven touchdowns and one interception. He also added one rushing touchdown and was named the Schutt Offensive Player of the Game.

Vena's counterpart, Justin Allgood, had a great game as well. Allgood was 19-of-27 for 214 yards and three touchdowns. He also ran for two scores. FB/LB ODIE ARMSTRONG lead the rushing attack for Tulsa with four carries for 17 yards and two touchdowns.

With the victory, Tulsa Head Coach MITCH ALLNER becomes the first man in af2 history to hoist the ArenaCup as a player and as a head coach. Allner was a member of the 2003 Tulsa squad which defeated Macon, 58-40 in ArenaCup4. As a player, offensive coordinator and head coach, Allner has been a part of 85 Talons' victories throughout the team's eight-year history.
